You must read and agree to the following declaration and paragraph below which is designed to create a legally binding relationship in return for you being allowed to participate.

It is solely my decision that I am taking part in the KTM Enduro Experience and I accept the fact that during the day it is highly likely that I will fall off of the motorcycle several times due to the nature of off road motorcycling which could cause injury to myself and that injury could be serious. Prior to signing this disclaimer I have been informed that if I did not agree to these terms or had any doubts about my ability or the risks of off road motorcycling I could have a full refund. I have also been given the opportunity to sit on the KTM Off Road Motorcycles provided for this experience and I am happy with the size of the bikes and understand that motorcycles are by their nature unstable and will fall unless restrained. I confirm I have experience riding a geared motorcycle with a clutch, front and rear brakes.

By signing this notice I am confirming that I totally understand its terms and accept the risks involved in riding an off road motorcycle
